WAIT!

...A thing we can't recover, a thing we're unable to turn back.

Continually spilling,

Past Issues:

Three years since graduation, Kusakabe and Sajou have been in a long-distance relationship where they haven't been able to see each other and became distant. One day, Sajou received news that his mother had been hospitalized with cancer, and Kusakabe offered to help her. Kumi said, "I want to listen to music chosen by you, Kusakabe-kun." When he gave it to her, the final track was a song he made about Sajou. That lead to him getting inspired to start afresh, but meanwhile...

...They said it was pneumonia.

HOW DID...

UM...

And because of that...

It was quite frail.

Since last
